CHAPTER XI In Which Property Gets into an Improper State of Mind

1. "My country!" said George, with a strong and bitter emphasis; "what country have I, but the grave, — and I wish to God that I was laid there!" ...
In what way did Mr. Wilson attempt to convince George that he should accept his situation?
2. Describe the analogy that George used to counter Mr. Wilson's following exhortation: "Let everyone abide in the condition in which he is called.' We must all submit to the indications of Providence, George, — don't you see?"
3. pertinacity: noun: the act of holding firmly to an opinion or a course of action
4. Where do "...governments derive their just power..." and why is George therefore a man without a country?
5. What does George "...want of [Mr. Wilson's] country..."?
6. To what extent will George "...fight for [his] liberty..."?
